

The 15th Annual Rhode Island Spring Flower & Garden Show February 21-24, 2008

Rhode Island Convention Center
Thursday - Saturday: 10am-9pm
Sunday: 10am-6pm

Blossoming at the 15th Annual Rhode Island Spring Flower & Garden Show is its 2008 theme, "Fairy Tales," exhibiting the myth of Mother Nature, as her magic becomes all the more captivating when combined with some of the best loved fables and tales of all time: Cinderella, Little Red Riding Hood, Sleeping Beauty and more. Spring brings these fantasies to life, melting away winter's wicked spell.

Show Highlights

Meet the artists and designers.

Expand your garden horizons at lectures and demonstrations by nationally recognized experts such as Paul Tuckey, Barbara Damrosch and Mary Ann Esposito.

Exquisite floral arrangements by Federation of Garden Clubs.

Grow your garden purchases at our Garden Marketplace.

Master Gardeners and our own garden Bookstore provides assistance and information.

Professionals for designing your landscaped garden.

Admission: Adults $14, Children $7

For more info about the show visit www.flowershow.com

The Rhode Island Wild Plant Society invites you to visit our garden display and enter into our woodland fairy tale,

"The Legend of The Lady's Slipper"

Our story takes place in a local Native American village about 4 centuries ago.

Experience the story in 3 seasons; fall winter and a long awaited spring. Learn a tale of the origin of the Lady Slipper, also known as 'Moccasin Flower'.

Discover how each lady slipper is a gentle reminder of the beauty and courage that lives in each of us. Experience the story for yourself and discover more about the treasures in Rhode Island's woodlands.

Our committee chairman is Jules Cohen. Judy Ireland is once again serving as the designer. Members of the committee are Karen Asher, Bonnie Baker, Kim Botelho, Lou Cadwell, Pat Cahalan, Dede & Bruce Carlsten, Andy Daigle, Dick Donnelly, Lisa Fiore, Dave Gumbley, Chris Kalina, Michael Mann, Tysh & Dan McGrail, Gil Moore, Richard Perreault, Andrew Rogers, Mark Rowan, Debbie & Maurice St. Pierre, Susan Shuster, and Barney & Marnie Webster.