Johnston, RI

Sat., April 24, 10:00-12 noon

Leaders: Helen Lusi and Kathy Barton

Join Helen and Kathy in exploring the world of Rhode Island's native violets in Helen's garden. These two women have many years of experience in growing, searching for, writing, leading walks about and sharing their knowledge of our state flower, Viola sororia, and many more of our state's native violets. We will walk in the garden, look at slides and maybe even taste something made by Helen using her famous violet syrup.
